

The City of Naples Airport Authority Selects New Executive Director

Christopher Rozansky, C.M.

NAPLES, FL – Following a nationwide search, the City of Naples Airport Authority has selected Christopher Rozansky, C.M., to be the new Executive Director at the Naples Municipal Airport (APF). Rozansky's first day at APF is March 28.

Rozansky has served as director of Venice Municipal Airport since 2010 and prior to that, he worked as operations manager for Collin County Regional Airport in McKinney, Texas.

He will plan and direct the operations of this Part 139 certificated airport currently with general aviation activity and commercial service. The Authority maintains the proprietary exclusive right for fueling and serves as the fueling FBO at the airport. Rozansky will also have full management and leadership responsibility for all Authority services, staff, facilities and activities. The Airport Authority has approximately 70 employees, and there are 300 additional employees throughout businesses and tenants located at the airport. The Florida Department of Transportation values the airport's economic impact to the community at more than $283 million annually and recognizes Naples Municipal Airport as ranked within the top ten for all business jet destinations in the U.S.

Rozansky holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Aviation Management from Ohio State University. He is also a Certified Member (C.M.) through the American Association of Airport Executives and has been active in the aviation industry.

This search was conducted by ADK Executive Search, a retained executive search firm specializing exclusively in searches for the aviation community.

###