receiving, transferring, storing, and distributing international and domestic cargo via air, rail, and highway. The combination of rail (provided by Norfolk Southern), air and highway modes of transportation – coupled with the onsite service of US Customs, USDA, freight forwarders and brokers – makes the Intermodal Center attractive to local, regional, national and even international industrial companies.

The Jetplex Industrial Park is one of the fastest growing high technology communities in the United States. From this strategic southeastern location, the 4,000-acre Jetplex Industrial Park offers a rare combination of air, rail, and truck transportation. More than 50 tenants occupy the Jetplex Industrial Park, representing seven countries. Industries range from automotive suppliers, electronics, aviation/aerospace, office and lab, aircraft MRO, unmanned aerial systems, office development – both technical and engineering, and warehouse or distribution centers.

PORT OF HUNTSVILLE

The Huntsville-Madison County Airport Authority is a public corporation under the laws of the State of Alabama. The Authority governs three main operating entities, which include Huntsville International Airport (HSV), the International Intermodal Center, and the Jetplex Industrial Park. The Authority is governed by a five-member Board of Directors. The Port of Huntsville is the marketing name used to encompass this multifaceted transportation complex that combines cargo movement and passenger travel with business and industry. The mission of the Port of Huntsville, situated on close to 7,000 acres of land, is to provide a multimodal transportation system to a diverse customer base to stimulate the economic growth and development of the Tennessee Valley Region.

HSV is served by American Airlines, Delta Airlines and United Airlines, directly or through their affiliates with nonstop service to nine destinations. HSV currently serves close to 1.2 million passengers annually, and recently completed $92-million in capital improvements, culminating in a brand new baggage claim area. The airport features two parallel runways –12,600 feet (the second longest in the Southeast) and 10,000 feet.

Huntsville's International Air Cargo Center consists of nearly 300,000 square feet airside cargo tenant warehouse facilities, including more than 5,000 square feet of cold storage, and one million square feet of ramp area. The air cargo operations are handled by Panalpina which has non-stop 747-8 freighter international air cargo service to Europe, Mexico, Asia and South America. This service helped elevate HSV to the 14th largest international air cargo airport in the U.S. Air cargo carriers include Atlas, Cargolux, Federal Express and UPS with both domestic and international destinations.

The International Intermodal Center, located in the Port of Huntsville Global Logistic Park, provides a single hub location specializing in

ABOUT HUNTSVILLE / MADISON COUNTY

Located in the heart of the Tennessee Valley, Huntsville/Madison County offers a wide range of lifestyle options, from urban and suburban to rural and farmstead properties. Residents enjoy higher incomes than the national average and a lower cost of living. Affordable homes, sun-belt weather and an average commute of 18 minutes promise more disposable income and more time to enjoy it. Cutting-edge and advanced health care options, award-winning schools and universities, and a multitude of civic opportunities complete the package. Find out why Huntsville/Madison County is consistently ranked one of the country's best places to live.

Huntsville/Madison County routinely makes national headlines for being a smart place to work. The primary economic sectors of aerospace, defense, advanced manufacturing, information technology and life sciences continue to grow and provide great career opportunities. Some of the largest employers in the area include the U.S. Army, The Boeing Company, Lockheed Martin, and ADTRAN; though there are also hundreds of small businesses and entrepreneurs. Marshall Space Flight Center, one of NASA's field centers, anchors the local aerospace industry.

A significant portion of Huntsville/Madison County's growth is attributable to the 2005 Base Realignment and Closure Commission's decision to move more than 4,500 direct jobs to Redstone Arsenal. These moves are mostly complete and BRAC created thousands of additional jobs across all sectors.

ALL WORK AND NO PLAY?

Well, that wouldn't be smart! Huntsville/Madison County provides "big city" fun as well as plenty of outdoor recreation opportunities. Recognized for being "green" and full of adventure, Huntsville is also home to the state's first professional symphony and a vibrant arts community. Front row or first chair, in the stands or on the field – all levels of participation are possible.

Veteran Status Information (for government contractors with contracts of $100,000 or more entered into on or after December 1, 2003)
Our company is a government contractor subject to the amended Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974 (VEVRAA), which requires government contractors to take affirmative action to employ and advance qualified disabled veterans, Armed Forces service medal veterans, recently separated veterans and other protected veterans. If you belong to any of these groups, we would like to include you under our affirmative action program. If you want to be included, please tell us. Submission of this information is voluntary and refusal to provide it will not subject you to any adverse treatment.

The information provided will be used only in ways that are consistent with the amended VEVRAA. This information will be kept confidential, except that: (i) supervisors and managers may be informed regarding restrictions on the work or duties of disabled veterans, and regarding necessary accommodations; (ii) first aid and safety personnel may be informed, to the extent appropriate, if you have a condition that might require emergency treatment; and (iii) government officials engaged in enforcing laws administered by the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP), or the Americans with Disabilities Act, may be informed.

Please check all boxes that apply to you:

- I am an Armed Forces service medal veteran: a veteran who, while serving on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service, participated in a United States military operation for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded pursuant to Executive Order 12985.
- I am a recently separated veteran: any veteran during the three-year period beginning on the date of such veteran's discharge or release from active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service.
- I am an "other protected" veteran: a veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service during a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized, under laws administered by the Department of Defense.

- I would like to be included under the company's affirmative action program (if applicable) pertaining to Armed Forces service medal veterans, recently separated veterans and other protected veterans. (You may request this now and/or at any time in the future.)
- None of the above applies to me.

Disabled Veterans (APPLICANT: Only complete this section if the company has checked "Yes" below.) EMPLOYER: Indicate whether you are inviting applicants to participate in your company's affirmative action program benefiting disabled veterans.

- Yes. We invite applicants to provide information (on a voluntary basis) regarding their status as a "disabled veteran" for inclusion in our affirmative action program. Check this box ONLY if your company is actually undertaking affirmative action for disabled veterans at the application stage (pre-offer) or is otherwise authorized to collect such data to comply with federal, state or local affirmative action obligations pertaining to disabled veterans. Otherwise, it is advisable to wait until a conditional offer of employment has been extended before inquiring about disability status.

APPLICANT:

If our company has checked "Yes" above, you are invited to provide additional information regarding your status as a "disabled veteran." This information will assist us in placing you in an appropriate position and in making accommodations for your disability. The law defines a "disabled veteran" as:

- a) a veteran of the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service who is entitled to compensation (or who, but for the receipt of military retired pay, would be entitled to compensation) under laws administered by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs, or
- b) a person who was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.

If you are a disabled veteran, please indicate whether you would like to be included under our company's affirmative action program for disabled veterans. You may elect to be included now or at any time in the future.

- Yes. I would like to be included under the company's affirmative action program for disabled veterans. (If a job offer is extended, you may be asked to provide more information to assist with placement and accommodation issues.)

- No. At this time, I would not like to be included in the company's affirmative action program for disabled veterans.

If you are a disabled veteran, please tell us about any special methods, skills and procedures that qualify you for positions you otherwise might not be able to do because of your disability, so you will be considered for any such positions.
