

The Mohave County Airport Authority Announces Selection of Assistant Airport Director

Timothy A. Bannon

BULLHEAD CITY, AZ – Following a nationwide search, the Mohave County Airport Authority has selected Timothy Bannon to be the Assistant Airport Director at the Laughlin/Bullhead International Airport (IFP). Bannon will begin his new position on December 14, 2015.

In this role, Bannon is responsible for aiding the Airport Director in the oversight and management of all airport activity at Laughlin/Bullhead International Airport, a Part 139, non-hub commercial service airport.

For the past three years, Bannon held the position of Airport Operations Officer at Gerald R. Ford International Airport. Prior to that, he was the Operations Services Specialist at Columbia Metropolitan Airport (CAE) in Columbia, SC.

“We feel very lucky to have Tim accept the position,” said Jeremy Keating, Director of the Laughlin/Bullhead International Airport. “Tim shows a lot of excitement for the position and is ready for the challenge. He brings a good knowledge of airport operations and we are excited to have him join our team.”

“I am very excited to be selected as the next Assistant Airport Director of Laughlin/Bullhead International Airport,” said Bannon. “I look forward to working with the entire airport staff, and making a positive impact on the future of the airport.”

Bannon has a Bachelor of Science degree in Aviation Management from Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, IL and a Master of Public Administration degree from the same university. Bannon holds a commercial pilot certificate.

Bannon enjoys outdoor activities including fishing, boating, camping, and running. He spends the majority of his time with family and friends, and enjoys traveling in his free time.

This search was conducted by ADK Executive Search, a retained executive search firm specializing exclusively in searches for the aviation community.

###