

Indianapolis Airport Authority Announces New General Counsel

The Indianapolis Airport Authority has selected Jeffery M. Mallamad as General Counsel. In his new role, he will be responsible for providing leadership and strategic direction as it relates to the Authority's government affairs as well as legal responsibilities and rights. Mallamad will serve as a member of the Executive Management Team and will provide policy-level assistance in the management, development, operation of the airport's and ancillary facilities and legal services for the benefit of the airport. He will also coordinate and supervise the contractual and leasing responsibilities of the airport and will be responsible for the airport's land acquisition program and legal assistance to the airport's staff and Board.

Jeffrey Mallamad,
General Counsel

Jeffery Mallamad is a partner in the Indianapolis office of Barnes & Thornburg and a member of the firm's Labor & Employment and Government Services and Finance departments. Mr. Mallamad concentrates his practice working with public officials and entities and has built strong working relationships with a number of Indiana municipal offices. He has extensive experience advising many Hoosier state and local elected officials on issues such as hiring, firing, protected and unprotected positions, reorganization efficiency and savings, and the recruiting, vetting and retention of highly qualified leadership teams.

Following his election in November 2015, Indianapolis Mayor-elect Joseph H. Hogsett tapped Mr. Mallamad to be co-counsel to his transition committee. He has also served on transition teams for several former Indiana Attorneys General and former Indiana Governors Evan Bayh and Frank O'Bannon.

Mr. Mallamad has a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Toledo and a Juris Doctorate degree from Case Western Reserve University Law School. He is also a member of the Case Western Reserve School of Law Hall of Fame and in 2013 was a Top Rated Lawyer in Labor & Employment by Martindale-Hubbell™ in conjunction with American Lawyer Media Law Review.
