

The Capital Region Airport Authority Announces Selection of Director of Cargo & Global Logistics Development

Tom Cross

LANSING, MI – Following a nationwide search, the Capital Region Airport Authority has selected Tom Cross to be the Director of Cargo & Global Logistics Development. Cross is replacing Gary Bartek and started his position on November 9, 2015.

In his new role, Cross will be directly responsible for the future marketing and development of domestic and international cargo and logistics operations through Port Lansing and the Port Lansing Foreign Trade Zone #275.

Cross has been a member of the aviation community for over 15 years and has directly worked with freight forwarders such as Chapman Freeborn, Kuehne + Nagel, ACS, UPS Supply Chain Solutions, as well as others. Most recently, he served as the Manager of Cargo Services/Chief Loadmaster at Kalitta Air. Prior to that, Cross was the Manager of Ground Operations/Chief Loadmaster with World Airways, a position that he held for 8 years.

Cross is a commercial pilot and has additional ratings to include flight instructor, instrument flight instructor, multi-engine flight instructor and advanced ground instructor.

This search was conducted by ADK Executive Search, a retained executive search firm specializing exclusively in searches for the aviation community.

###