

St. Joseph County Airport Authority Announces Selection of Director of Administration & Finance

Brock Zeeb

SOUTH BEND, IN – Following a nationwide search, The St. Joseph County Airport Authority has selected Brock Zeeb to be the new Director of Administration and Finance at the South Bend International Airport (SBN). Zeeb is scheduled to begin his position at the end of January, 2016.

In his new role, Zeeb will report to the Executive Director and will manage administrative, business, and financial activities of the Authority, namely direction of the financial management program including coordination and management of all functional activities associated with budget preparation, reporting, and financial analysis.

Zeeb is a longtime resident of the area and most recently served as the Director of Economic Resources for the City of South Bend, where he managed seven Redevelopment areas and $25 Million in revenue. He also led the City in bond financing/refinancing of over $50 million dollars. Prior to that, Zeeb worked with the Internal Revenue Service in South Bend as a Revenue Officer.

“It has been exciting to watch the tremendous growth occurring at the Airport,” says Zeeb. “I am excited about the opportunity to join the SBN team.”

“We are excited to have Brock join our team,” says Executive Director, Mike Daigle. “He brings an energy, enthusiasm, and drive that will make him a contributing team member very quickly.”

Zeeb has a both a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and a Master’s of Business Administration (MBA) degree from Bethel University in Mishawaka, IN.

Zeeb and his wife, Bethany, have two young children, and he enjoys golf and fitness.
