

Dawn Hunter to Join The Port of Seattle, Seattle-Tacoma International Airport as Senior Manager, Airport Dining and Retail

The Port of Seattle has selected Dawn Hunter as Senior Manager, Airport Dining and Retail for the Seattle-Tacoma International Airport. In this position, Ms. Hunter will be responsible for maximizing non-aeronautical revenue; providing an exceptional customer experience for the travelling public; ensuring quality operations of existing businesses; and supporting the creation of jobs through the development of new leasing opportunities.

Dawn Hunter
Senior Manager,
Airport Dining and Retail

“Dawn brings a wealth of experience in the development, management and marketing of Los Angeles World Airports’ dining and retail program as well as management of their ACDBE program,” said Jim Schone, Director, Aviation Business Development. “Her background in various aspects of airport management, her strong work ethic, her ability to develop solutions to complex problems and her wonderful sense of humor are attributes that make her a great fit for our program.”

Ms. Hunter is currently serving as the Concessions Manager and ACDBE Liaison Officer for Los Angeles World Airports (LAWA), a position she has held since 2007. Prior to that, she served as a Supervisor in the Security Badge Office for LAWA as well as a Training Officer for the Los Angeles Police Department.

Ms. Hunter has a Bachelor of Science in Criminology from Sonoma State University. She has a Master of Public Administration from National University. She will begin her new position with The Port of Seattle on July 24.

This national search was conducted by ADK Executive Search, a retained executive search firm specializing exclusively in searches for the aviation community.