THE AIRPORT

Bishop International Airport is a commercial service and general aviation airport located in Flint, Michigan. It is named after banker and General Motors Board Member Arthur Giles Bishop. The airport is owned and operated by Bishop International Airport Authority (BIAA) which is governed by a Board of Directors comprised of nine members who are appointed to three-year terms. The Mayor of the City of Flint and the Genesee County Board of Commissioners make the board appointments on an annual basis. The Airport Director reports directly to the Board.

In 2013, FNT's enplanements were 397,088 making it the third busiest airport in Michigan. The airport is currently served by several passenger airlines: Southwest Airlines, Delta Air Lines, (and affiliates), United Airlines and American Airlines. Additionally, Federal Express operates cargo services out of the airport. Servicing the airlines and general aviation is fixed-base operator, AvFlight.

Bishop International Airport covers 1,550 acres and has two runways. The airport is located in Genesee County, approximately 60 miles north of Detroit, surrounded by Flint Township and Mundy Township.

For 2014, the operational budget is $10,660,675 and the Capital Budget (non-AIP) is $531,713. Bishop Airport employs 53 people, of which 45 belong to a union. A $24 million Terminal Renovation and Expansion Project was completed in 2012. That same year, a Terminal Ramp Rehabilitation Project was also completed. During 2013, a Taxiway A/T-hangar Area Rehabilitation Project was finished.

Upcoming capital improvement projects include Deicing Pad Improvements, Obstruction Analysis and Removal, Avigation Easements and Exhibit A Update. A Runway Rehab Project and the second phase of the Terminal Ramp Rehabilitation are scheduled for 2015.

Bishop International Airport was awarded Michigan Airport of the Year by the Michigan Department of Transportation Office of Aeronautics. It was recognized for its safety and expansion projects.

FLINT, MICHIGAN

Flint & Genesee offers one of the most dynamic combinations of town and country to be found across the Great Lakes. This diverse area ranges from rich farmland to downtown nightlife, with a collection of college campuses, the quaint villages and towns that so many call home, our Genesee County Parks, the Flint Cultural Center, and the southern hillsides dotted with lakes making Flint and Genesee the kind of place where making a better life is our way of life. Our communities boast an invigorated workforce, solid transportation network, and the Mid-west's most impressive collection of arts and cultural amenities.

Our area is home to many new medical research facilities where discoveries are taking place every day. It is supported by state-of-the-art engineering that's pushing the frontiers of our automotive and medical technology. The students at our many colleges and universities make us one of the fastest growing educational communities in North America.

Flint & Genesee extends for 639 square miles and includes 33 cities, townships and villages, with Flint as the largest urban center. A drive from east to west or north to south reveals a diverse mixture of small towns and communities, school districts, large and small businesses, many nonprofit organizations and a deep caring for community.

The community connection has created a web of dynamic partnerships between local businesses and educators, as well as economic development experts and tourism professionals. The county's strong manufacturing base, paired with the knowledge economy, has helped build a coalition for regional economic success. These relationships, which help fuel a sense of community and interdependence, are the foundation for a bright future in Genesee County.

RECREATION

With 639 square miles of land in Genesee County, we enjoy flatlands filled with Michigan's largest county park system. A total of 21 parks boast more than 11,000 acres of woods, rivers, lakes, trails, beaches and campgrounds. It's like coming to a fun park that's filled with more than rides.

We enjoy golfing on pristine greens, inspiring art galleries, enriching museums, horse racing, professional hockey, skiing and so much more.

Every year we host The Crim Festival of Races, Back to the Bricks, The Warrior Dash, Bikes on the Bricks, the Renaissance Festival and more.

The places and qualities bringing pleasure to life for those spending time in Flint & Genesee are countless. It's a place where real people discover real opportunities.

INFRASTRUCTURE

Our world-class infrastructure is evident by our new $33 million intermodal freight center at Bishop International Airport. This facility has the capacity to handle in excess of 60 million pounds of freight annually.

The confluence of three major highways, I-75, US 23 and I-69 (the NAFTA/International Trade Corridor), connect to the United States, Canada and Mexico. Nearly 70% of U.S. imports to Canada travel by truck on I-69.

The intersection of continental and intercontinental railways, CSX and CN, provides area companies with rail access to points across the U.S. and Canada. In addition, the Mid-Michigan Foreign Trade Zone permits businesses to lower expenses and increase profits through import-export activities.

COLLEGES & UNIVERSITIES

Flint & Genesee is home to multiple institutes of higher learning, including two colleges, four universities and eight satellite campuses. As a growing education center, we are proud of the impressive centers of academic excellence and the many successful graduates who have earned degrees and started careers in the region. ARTS & CULTURE:

Flint is home to the expanse of the Flint Cultural Center. It includes The Whiting, Longway Planetarium, Sloan Museum, Flint Youth Theatre, Flint Institute of Arts, Flint Institute of Music and the Buick Automotive Gallery. The Flint Cultural Center campus provides area residents with an array of cultural, scientific and artistic experiences. They promote understanding of the diverse cultures reflected in the Greater Flint community. The Center is a major educational resource, as well as a welcoming and inclusive community center. The Flint Cultural Center is a model for how the arts, sciences and humanities can work collectively to create synergy among constituent institutions. It acts as a community catalyst, working with other organizations, individuals and agencies all of which strengthen local and regional economic development, cultural understanding, and widespread support for the arts, sciences and humanities.
