

The Phoenix-Mesa Gateway Airport Authority Selects New Deputy Director

Scott J. Brownlee, C.M.

MESA, AZ – Following a nationwide search, the Phoenix-Mesa Gateway Airport Authority has selected Scott Brownlee, C.M., to be the new Deputy Director at the Phoenix-Mesa Gateway Airport (AZA). Brownlee is slated to begin his new position on February 13, 2017.

In his new role, Brownlee is responsible for administration and managerial duties overseeing and guiding departments and special projects to ensure that the policies and objectives of Phoenix-Mesa Gateway Airport Authority (PMGAA) are achieved in a safe, effective, efficient, and professional manner.

Brownlee has 28 plus years of experience in all facets of aviation with a background in Commercial Service and General Aviation Airports. He has most recently been a Community Planner/Program Manager with the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), a position he has held since 2012. Additionally, Brownlee was a Senior Aviation Planner with the State of Colorado, Division of Aeronautics.

Brownlee holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Airport Administration and Business Management from the University of North Dakota. He also holds accreditation as a Certified Member (C.M.) from the American Association of Airport Executives (A.A.A.E.) and is an FAA Licensed Private Pilot

This search was conducted by ADK Executive Search, a retained executive search firm specializing exclusively in searches for the aviation community.

###