

The Greenville-Spartanburg Airport District Announces New Director of Commercial Business

Carlos Ruiz-Coll, AAE

GREENVILLE-SPARTANBURG, SC – The Greenville-Spartanburg Airport District has selected Carlos Ruiz-Coll, A.A.E., as Director of Commercial Business for the Greenville-Spartanburg Airport District. Mr. Ruiz-Coll will be responsible for commercial business development of all aeronautical and non-aeronautical revenue business. He will begin his new position on September 30, 2019.

Mr. Ruiz-Coll has a strong background in airport administration, planning and operations at airports of various sizes including general aviation, medium and large hub airports. Most recently, he was Manager, Business Development and Airport Administration for The Ohio State University Airport in Columbus, OH. He has also worked for Crawford, Murphy & Tilly, Inc., O'Hare International Airport, Pittsburgh International Airport and Columbus Regional Airport Authority.

"I'm thrilled to join such an incredibly talented team and am humbled that GSP selected me to build upon the airport's success," said Mr. Ruiz-Coll. "As one of the fastest-growing regions in the country, the GSP Airport District has developed a world-class facility that makes its community proud. I'm grateful for this new challenge to steward innovative opportunities that will make this vibrant community Think GSP First."

Mr. Ruiz-Coll earned a bachelor's degree in Aviation Management from The Ohio State University and a master's degree in Business Administration from Tiffin University. He is an accredited airport executive (A.A.E.) of the American Association of Airport Executives.

This national search was conducted by ADK Consulting & Executive Search, a retained executive search firm.

Greenville-Spartanburg International Airport