

The Lee County Port Authority Announces New Senior Manager, Properties

Carolyn Langdon

FORT MYERS, FL – The Lee County Port Authority has named Carolyn Langdon as the new Senior Manager, Properties for the Southwest Florida International Airport (RSW) and Page Field (FMY). In this position, she will be responsible for negotiating and directing the preparation of leases, license and permit agreements, and other contracts with current and future tenants and other business partners leasing space at, or doing business at, Southwest Florida International Airport or Page Field. She will begin her new position January 23, 2020.

Ms. Langdon most recently served as General Aviation Business & Administration Manager for the Hillsborough County Aviation Authority (Tampa, FL) where she was responsible for providing strategic vision for business development initiatives. Prior to that position, she was Senior Business Analyst, Contract Compliance. Ms. Langdon has also worked for Aramark, Hydrodog, LLC and Darden Restaurants.

“I am thrilled for the opportunity to join the properties team at Lee County Port Authority,” said Ms. Langdon. “With exciting projects such as the terminal expansion with new concession programs and over one thousand acres of prime real estate at Skyplex, there are excellent aeronautical and non-aeronautical business opportunities at RSW. In addition, Page Field is an exceptional general aviation airport with state-of-the-art facilities and amenities to support general and business aviation growth.”

Ms. Langdon graduated from Johnson & Wales University with a bachelor’s degree in Entrepreneurship. She also graduated from the University of South Florida with a master’s degree in Business Administration.

This national search was conducted by ADK Consulting & Executive Search, a retained executive search firm.

Southwest Florida International Airport