

The Greenville-Spartanburg Airport District Announces New Director of Commercial Business

Chris Schweighart, C.M.

GREENVILLE-SPARTANBURG, SC – The Greenville-Spartanburg Airport District has appointed Chris Schweighart as Director of Commercial Business, responsible for the commercial business development of all aeronautical and non-aeronautical revenue business. In this role, Mr. Schweighart will oversee and lead business development, market research, and leasing of airport facilities, land, and services. He will also promote the airport locally, nationally, and internationally and will be responsible for the development and implementation of both short- and long-term strategic commercial business development plans for the District. Mr. Schweighart will begin his new position Dec. 3.

Mr. Schweighart has more than 10 years of experience overseeing portfolios of multiple properties, including airport terminals, mobile home parks, self-storage facilities, medical office buildings, and condominiums in various cities and states. Most recently, he worked for the San Diego County Regional Airport Authority as Real Estate Manager, where he managed the lease agreements of numerous airlines and concessionaires.

“Joining the team at GSP represents a wonderful opportunity for me, both professionally and personally,” said Mr. Schweighart. “With a top-notch leadership team, a hard-working and friendly staff, and a carefully-planned strategic vision, GSP has established an impressive track record of success. I look forward to building on this success by maximizing the many business opportunities available at GSP. I am also excited about living in the beautiful and lively Greenville-Spartanburg region. With a booming economy, an outdoor lifestyle, and a thriving cultural scene, the GSP area seems like a fantastic place to raise my family.”

Mr. Schweighart received a bachelor’s degree in Spanish from the Colgate University and a master’s degree in business administration from San Diego State University. He is a Certified Member (C.M.) of the American Association of Airport Executives and has a Real Estate Salesperson License.
