

The Raleigh-Durham Airport Authority Announces New Senior Vice President, Chief Revenue Officer

Raleigh-Durham, NC – The Raleigh-Durham Airport Authority has named David Freedman the new Senior Vice President, Chief Revenue Officer. In this role, he is responsible for growing both aeronautical and non-aeronautical revenue with a goal of increasing overall customer satisfaction.

Mr. Freedman has worked for the Hollywood Burbank Airport for seven years, most recently serving as Director, Strategic Planning and Business Development. His professional experience also includes leadership experience with Morgan Stanley, Fitch Ratings, Port Authority of New York & New Jersey and several private sector organizations.

David Freedman

“I am very excited to join the Raleigh-Durham Airport Authority and look forward to contributing to the Authority’s continued success and growth,” said Mr. Freedman. “I am honored to have been selected to fill the position of Senior Vice President & Chief Revenue Officer and look forward to working with the dedicated and talented group of professionals at RDU.”

Mr. Freedman received a Bachelor of Arts in Public Policy from Syracuse University and a Master of Public Administration. He achieved a Certificate in Commercial Management through Airports Council International – North America (ACI-NA) and currently serves on ACI-NA’s Commercial Management Steering Committee as well as the steering committee for the American Association of Airport Executives Airport Innovation Accelerator Program.

This national search was conducted by ADK Executive Search, a retained executive search firm.