

Metropolitan Knoxville Airport Authority Announces New Properties & Risk Manager

KNOXVILLE, TN – The Metropolitan Knoxville Airport Authority (MKAA) has named David Schroth as the new Properties & Risk Manager. In this position, Mr. Schroth will be responsible for managing activities related to properties, concession and lease management, real estate management and development, and other business affairs of the Authority. MKAA owns and operates McGhee Tyson Airport (TYS) and Downtown Island Airport (DKX) located in Knoxville, Tennessee. He began his new position on February 17, 2020.

Mr. Schroth previously worked for Hanna Commercial in Rochester, N.Y., as Associate Broker/Director of Leasing. He was selected to start and grow a new division within the company specializing in the marketing and leasing of retail shopping centers and mixed-use projects. Mr. Schroth also worked for Glazer Properties as Commercial Leasing Manager.

Mr. Schroth holds a bachelor's degree in Political Science from the State University of New York College at Brockport and an executive master's degree in Business Administration from St. John Fisher College.

This national search was conducted by ADK Consulting & Executive Search, a retained consulting and search firm based in Jacksonville, Florida. It was founded in 2003 and performs Executive Searches, Management Consulting, Organizational Development, and Staffing. Over 80 U.S. airports are currently run by CEOs placed by ADK.

www.adkexecutivesearch.com

McGhee Tyson Airport