The Airport

The Spokane Airport Board oversees Spokane International Airport, Felts Field, and the Airport Business Park, and has a Grant of Authority to operate Foreign-Trade Zone #224. Spokane Airports is jointly owned by Spokane County and the City of Spokane and operates under an inter-local agreement. The operating authority of the airports is the Spokane Airport Board, consisting of seven appointees from the two governmental bodies. The Board annually oversees a capital and operating budget of approximately $70 million from various funding sources.

Spokane International Airport (GEG) is a 6,400-acre commercial service airport situated five miles west of downtown Spokane, Washington. It is the second largest airport in the State of Washington and designated by the FAA as a Small Hub airport. The GEG market area includes the Eastern Washington, Northern Idaho, Western Montana and portions of Southern British Columbia and Alberta with an estimated population of 1.7 million people. The airport served a record 4,112,784 total passengers in 2019. Additionally, the airport handled nearly 70,000 tons of cargo, and there were 69,097 total operations at the airport.

Spokane International Airport is served by six scheduled service passenger airlines: Alaska Airlines, American Airlines, Delta Air Lines, Frontier Airlines, Southwest Airlines and United Airlines. Scheduled all-cargo carriers servicing GEG include UPS and FedEx. . (continued...)

Signature Flight Support provides fixed-base operator services. The two passenger terminals have 18 gates. Two on-site hotels are currently available to passengers with a third hotel opening in spring 2020. Eight rental car companies serve the airport, and all are located onsite in the Ground Transportation Center. Several local hotels provide complimentary shuttle service to and from the airport. Passengers can also depart and arrive at the airport via the Spokane Transit Authority bus line, taxi's, and rideshare companies.

Felts Field

Felts Field is a 400-acre general reliever airport that had 60,671 aircraft operations in 2019 and is home to over 175 aircraft and nine commercial tenants. Western Aviation provides fixed-base operator and avionic services. Felts Field has two paved runways and a turf landing strip as well as the ability to accommodate water landings on the adjacent Spokane River.

The Airport Business Park is an industrial and business park development that comprises 432 acres. Strategically located adjacent to the airport facilities and Interstate 90, it has 19 buildings and 8 tenants.

The airport is embarking on a Terminal Renovation and Expansion Project at Spokane International Airport. This project will modernize the existing terminals, built in the 1960's and 1990's, respectively, and create a consolidated checkpoint and baggage claim area for passengers to enter and depart the airport. Passengers will benefit from the convenience and efficiencies they enjoy at a modern, state-of-the-art terminal with added amenities.

About the Spokane Region

Spokane

ARTS & CULTURE Spokane

As a cycling-friendly community, Spokane boasts miles of challenging roadways to ascend and coast. Or leave the pavement, grab a mountain bike, and explore almost endless combinations of wooded and rocky trails in the area. The most difficult challenge is trying not to stop at every breathtaking vista—save those for when you come back to the trails in your hiking boots. Yes, Spokane offers hiking opportunities that are some of the best in the West..

Spokane Arts & Culture

Spokane is not only the capital of the Intermountain Northwest; it is also the artistic and cultural hub of the region. A vibrant metropolitan center, our city is a meeting place for artists, performers, curators, musicians, and creatives of all types. Alongside our renowned wineries and urban river gorge, you will find a treasure trove of art galleries, museums, theaters, and historic buildings to make your visit truly memorable. Why settle for either nature or culture when you could have the best of both?

Our enterprising city has a long history of dedication to the arts. You can see that in our art galleries, many of which focus on promoting the work of local and regional artists. Whether you find yourself drawn to the Corbin Art Center, the New Moon Art Gallery, or the Chase Gallery in our own city hall, the artwork nurtured by our community tastemakers is not to be missed. With a broad range of styles, subjects, and disciplines available, the art you'll see in Spokane is sure to inspire you.

Education

Spokane is a major hub for education in the Inland Northwest region. There are excellent public and private school options for elementary, junior high, and high school students. Higher education establishments include Eastern Washington University, Washington State University at the Riverpoint Campus, the Community Colleges of Spokane, Gonzaga University, and Whitworth University.

Sports

Spokane is a sports mecca. College basketball lovers will find their fix with the Gonzaga University men's basketball team. In March, the Spokane Arena often hosts the 1st and 2nd rounds of the NCAA tournament. If it's football you're looking for, two local universities, Eastern Washington University and Washington State University, deliver. In the winter, Spokane Chiefs hockey scores, and summer brings the sound of cheers at Spokane Indians baseball games.

Sports enthusiasts also enjoy Hoopfest, a large, annual 3-on-3 basketball tournament.

In addition, the Spokane Arena is the perennial host to the State 'B' Basketball Tournament, which brings athletes and fans from across Washington to Spokane.

Culinary

This foodie paradise will tempt you with every type of cuisine and all the latest food trends.

The many local chefs dedicated to culinary craft and excellence are helping to make a name for Spokane on the national food scene. Chef-driven restaurant concepts cover everything from tacos and beer to upscale dining and weekend brunch. And it's not all about trends either. In Spokane, it's more about using skills and passion to create truly memorable meals. Chefs embrace old-world techniques for modern applications, and the opposite is true too.

You'll find the perfect restaurant to suit any occasion or appetite. Looking to nibble and chat? Check out any of the cafés and coffee shops serving up pastries and sandwiches. Want a meal paired with the perfect local wine or brew? There are plenty of wineries and breweries to choose from.

Feeling a little adventurous?

Explore the local Northwestern fare and see what the chefs are cooking up with ingredients sourced from nearby farms or even their own gardens.

With Spokane County home to thousands of farms, there's no shortage of farm-to-table efforts. More often than not, you'll discover that the food scene thrives on all things local and fresh. Spokane chefs carefully select the ingredients to best express their vision, and, as a diner, you become the lucky recipient of this craft and care executed to delicious results.

If you're interested in sampling far-flung flavors, Spokane has that covered as well. Global tastes have their place in this mini metropolis where diverse cultures converge. You can have Danish Æbleskivers for breakfast, pad Thai for lunch, Indian tikka masala for dinner, and maybe even Jamaican jerk chicken from a food truck for a snack in between. In Spokane, there's a plate for every palate.
