The Airport Authority

The Jackson Municipal Airport Authority: The Vision of JMAA and its employees is to provide exemplary transportation services and facilities at Jackson-Medgar Wiley Evers International Airport and Hawkins Field, and thereby be a catalyst for community and economic development. Their mission is to operate Jackson-Medgar Wiley Evers International Airport and Hawkins Field, and thereby connect its patrons to the worldwide intermodal transportation network.

Jackson–Medgar Wiley Evers International Airport (JAN) is located in Jackson, Mississippi, six miles east of Jackson, across the Pearl River. It serves commercial, private, and military aviation. It is named after Medgar Wiley Evers, the former Mississippi Field Secretary for the NAACP, and is administered by the Jackson Municipal Airport Authority (JMAA), which also oversees aviation activity at Hawkins Field (HKS), a general aviation airport in northwest Jackson.

Aviation in Jackson began in 1928 with the purchase of 151 acres of pastureland in the City of Jackson known then as Davis Field, now known as Hawkins Field. The Jackson–Medgar Wiley Evers International Airport was certificated for commercial operations in 1963.
The Airport Authority (continued)

JMAA employs 106 people between JAN and HKS and has an operational budget for the prior Fiscal Year of $17,363,135. JAN covers 3,381 acres and has two runways: 16L/34R and 16R/34L, each 8,500 x 150 ft. asphalt and HKS has two runways: 11/29 which is 3000 ft. and 16/34 which is 5,385 ft. long.

HKS is supported by an air traffic control tower, a full service FBO and the Mississippi Army National Guard 185th theater aviation brigade has a significant presence on the field. Annual operations are approximately 35,000.

Commercial air service at JAN is enhanced by Atlantic Aviation, and the 172nd Air Lift Wing of the Mississippi Air National Guard. Enplanements for year ending 2018 were 489,454. Both facilities are located within a Free Trade Zone.

Commercial Airline operators at JAN include:
- American Airlines
- Delta Airlines
- Frontier Airlines
- United Airlines
- UPS Air and UPS Supply Chain
