

The Metropolitan Nashville Airport Authority Announces New Assistant Vice President, Strategic Planning

Jeffery Roach, A.A.E.

NASHVILLE, TN –The Metropolitan Nashville Airport Authority has appointed Jeffery Roach, A.A.E., as Assistant Vice President, Strategic Planning. Mr. Roach will be responsible for organizational strategy, planning, land use, and master planning. Other responsibilities include overseeing short- and long-term planning efforts to set organizational direction. Mr. Roach will begin his new position Sept. 24.

Mr. Roach was the Airport Manager at Fairbanks International Airport since 2015. Previously, he worked for the State of Alaska for 16 years as Transportation Planning Manager. Mr. Roach also has experience as an Outdoor Recreation Planner, a Park Ranger and a Forestry Technician. He has served in the Alaska Army National Guard.

“I am excited to join the team at the Metropolitan Nashville Airport Authority,” said Mr. Roach. “This is a tremendous period of growth at MNAA and I look forward to being a part of the future of the organization.”

Mr. Roach received a bachelor’s degree in Natural Resource Management from University of Alaska Fairbanks. He also received a master’s degree in Management from Webster University and a master’s degree in Strategic Studies from the United States Air Force Air University. He is an Accredited Member (A.A.E.) of the American Association of Airport Executives and a commercial pilot.

This national search was conducted by ADK Consulting & Executive Search, a retained executive search firm.

Source: ADK Consulting & Executive Search

Nashville International Airport