

The Metropolitan Nashville Airport Authority Announces New Assistant Vice President, Revenue Development

Linda Macey

NASHVILLE, TN – The Metropolitan Nashville Airport Authority has selected Linda Macey as Assistant Vice President, Revenue Development. In this role, Ms. Macey will be responsible for planning, administering, organizing, and directing airline affairs, air service development, concessions, rental cars, parking, and ground transportation activities. She will begin her new position July 22, 2019.

Ms. Macey has more than 25 years of experience in the aviation industry. Most recently, she was the Business Development & Project Manager for VTC, an aviation consulting company in Texas. Previously, she was the Senior Manager, Airport Affairs for Southwest Airlines. She has also worked for ABX Air, Inc., Emery Worldwide Airlines and UltraAir, Airline of the Americas.

“Today is certainly an exciting time to be at BNA,” said Ms. Macey. “As one of the fastest growing airports in the US, Nashville has created a comprehensive plan to become the premier airport for all travelers and plans to accommodate that growth with the launch of the BNA Vision plan. I am honored and excited to be a part of the team that will rise to the challenge and make the BNA Vision a reality.”

Ms. Macey earned a bachelor’s degree in International Relations & German from Dickinson College and a master’s degree in Aeronautical Science: Management & Operations Specialties from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University.
