

Metropolitan Knoxville Airport Authority Announces New Vice President of Finance & Administration

KNOXVILLE, TN – Nancy White has been named the new Vice President of Finance & Administration for the Metropolitan Knoxville Airport Authority (MKAA). She is responsible for the management, administration, planning and directing of the overall assigned administrative, financial, accounting, and properties (airline) management functions. Ms. White is the chief financial officer of MKAA and will manage and supervise staff in achievement of department objectives. She will also participate and contribute to the executive management team and coordinate work objectives with other departments. MKAA owns and operates McGhee Tyson Airport (TYS) and Downtown Island Airport (DKX) located in Knoxville, Tennessee.

Nancy White, CPA

Ms. White has worked for the Metropolitan Knoxville Airport Authority as Controller since 2017. Prior to joining MKAA, she was Analyst – External Reporting for the Tennessee Valley Authority and Audit Manager for Tarwater & Company, PC. She also served as Controller for the Emerald Youth Foundation. Ms. White earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and a Master of Accountancy from the University of Tennessee. She is also a Certified Public Accountant (CPA).

“MKAA is a great place to work with a highly qualified and professional management team,” said Ms. White. “I am honored, humbled and excited to have been selected to fill the position of Vice President of Finance & Administration, and I look forward to working with the team in my new position.”

This national search was conducted by ADK Executive Search, a retained executive search firm specializing exclusively in searches for the aviation community.

Metropolitan Knoxville Airport Authority