"I'm very excited to join the team at GEG and SFF," said Ms. Anderson. "Aviation is in my blood - my father was a commercial pilot for 35 years and my mother was a flight attendant. I grew up going to airports regularly. The smell of jet fuel has always meant adventure to me and even more so now with my new undertaking here at GEG."

Ms. Anderson earned her bachelor's degree in Political Science and Spanish from the Washington State University. She also holds a Washington State real estate broker's license.
