The Naples Airport Authority Appoints Noah Dietrich as Development Project Manager

NAPLES, FL – The Naples Airport Authority has named Noah Dietrich as Development Project Manager to administer and manage the planning, design and construction of facilities, structures, roadways, runways and other airport systems for Naples Airport (APF). He began his new position on January 11, 2023.

With a background in aviation engineering and project management, Mr. Dietrich most recently was a Project Engineer with DeAngelis Diamond Construction where he managed a major renovation of a golf course clubhouse, restaurant and pro shop. He also worked for Tetra Tech Canada, Airports Group, where he handled project proposal writing, engineering budget negotiation, preparing engineering change orders, project budgeting and invoicing.

“I am excited to work at the airport where I learned to fly and become more involved in the local flying community,” said Mr. Dietrich. “The excellence in which APF conducts business and operations is something I greatly admire. I’m looking forward to working with the APF team on the multitude of exciting ongoing and future projects.”

Mr. Dietrich received his bachelor’s degree in Civil Engineering from the University of British Columbia. He is a licensed private pilot.
