Sheridan County, Wyoming Appoints Robert Gill, C.M., as Airport Manager

SHERIDAN, WY – Sheridan County, Wyoming has named Robert Gill, C.M., as Airport Manager for Sheridan County Airport (SHR). In this position, Mr. Gill is responsible for planning, directing, and managing all activities of the Airport. He began his new position on January 1, 2023.

Having joined SHR twelve years ago, Mr. Gill brings a strong aviation background to the position. Most recently he was the Airport Operations Supervisor responsible for coordinating maintenance and operation activities. Previously he served as Airport Training Coordinator and Airport Maintenance Technician. Mr. Gill also worked for Bighorn Airways as Flightline Service Manager.

Robert Gill, C.M.

“As I look back on my career at the Sheridan County Airport and to where I first began, I would never have imagined being selected as the next Sheridan County Airport Manager,” said Mr. Gill. “I was a young college student looking for part-time work, and over time fell in love with the airport. I couldn't imagine working anywhere else and I'm very excited the Sheridan County Commission choose me for this role as I look to advance in my aviation career.”

Mr. Gill is a Certified Member (C.M.) of the American Association of Airport Executives. He serves on the Board of Directors for the Wyoming Airports Coalition and is a licensed private pilot.
