The Metropolitan Nashville Airport Authority Appoints Aaron Flake as Assistant Director, Parking and Ground Transportation Business Strategy

NASHVILLE, TN – The Metropolitan Nashville Airport Authority (MNA) has named Aaron Flake as Assistant Director, Parking and Ground Transportation Business Strategy. In this position, Mr. Flake will manage contractual compliance for ground transportation providers, including taxicabs, transportation network companies, charter, and shuttle vehicles for Nashville International Airport. He will also develop and execute strategies to support department goals including innovation, customer experience and revenue generation. He began his new position on March 13, 2023.

Mr. Flake brings a strong background in business development, strategic planning, budget and revenue management, and procurement. Most recently, he was Assistant Vice President with Propark Mobility, The Ohio State University's parking system. In that role, he oversaw the daily operations of 15 garages and 97 surface lots. He also worked for Ontario International Airport Authority, Riverside County Department of Public Social Services and Diamond Parking Service, LLC.

Aaron Flake

"BNA is highly regarded around the airport community, and I am honored to have been selected to join the team," said Mr. Flake. "BNA is not only recovering quickly from COVID-19 but is growing rapidly. Being part of such a great organization and being able to utilize my knowledge, skills and abilities is exactly what I was looking for. I hope to make an immediate impact and quickly become an asset to the airport by utilizing my leadership skills and industry expertise. I plan to adapt swiftly to the organization's culture and support the MNA vision."

Mr. Flake received his bachelor's degree in Public Administration from California Baptist University. He is a Veteran of the United States Marine Corps.
