Tucson Airport Authority Names Kim Allison as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

TUCSON, AZ – The Tucson Airport Authority (TAA) is proud to announce the hiring of Kim Allison as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer (CFO). As Vice President, Ms. Allison will join the TAA’s Executive Team in leading the oversight and administration of Tucson International Airport (TUS) and Ryan Airfield (RYN). She began her position on March 20, 2023.

In her role as CFO, Ms. Allison will oversee the Finance Department, including grant programs, regulatory compliance, accounting functions, and financial planning and analysis for the TAA. Before joining the organization, she was the CFO for Gulfport Biloxi International Airport (GPT).

Kim Allison, CPA

“The TAA continues to accelerate our performance by attracting top talent like Kim Allison,” said TAA President and CEO Danette Bewley. “She comes to this organization with the skillset and experience that we expect from our executive leadership.”

Ms. Allison, a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), served as President of the Gulf Coast Chapter of the Mississippi Society of CPAs. That regional position established her as an organizer of like-minded professionals and a mentor to young individuals with aspirations of a career in finance. Ms. Allison continues to serve on the Advisory Board of the University of Southern Mississippi’s School of Accountancy, where she earned her degree in Accounting.
