The CVG Airport Authority Names Bill Siemer as Vice President – Planning and Development

CINCINNATI, OH – The CVG Airport Authority, which owns and operates the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport (CVG), has named Bill Siemer as Vice President – Planning and Development. In this position, Mr. Siemer will lead the Authority’s airport capital projects, planning functions, engineering and design, construction management, program management, environmental planning and processes, environmental compliance, and sustainability efforts. Mr. Siemer began his new role on May 20, 2024.

Bill Siemer, PE, CEM, CEFP

Mr. Siemer brings more than 25 years of global experience in facilities management, capital improvements, planning, real estate, and environmental service. Most recently, he was Senior Project Manager with CBRE Principal Projects Group where he delivered turnkey facilities project solutions to clients across the U.S. Mr. Siemer has also worked for Monmouth University in New Jersey as Executive Director for Campus Planning and Facilities Management and for Naval Facilities Engineering Systems Command, Mid-Atlantic as Executive Officer.

"I am honored to be joining the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport team," said Mr. Siemer. "I am truly humbled by the trust and confidence that has been placed in me. CVG has an ambitious plan for modernization and growth, and I am thrilled to be part of that plan. I am excited to be back in my hometown of Cincinnati, and I look forward to the opportunity to lead the Planning & Development team to define, communicate, and build upon a strong vision for CVG."

Mr. Siemer received a bachelor’s degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Cincinnati. He went on to earn his master’s degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Illinois and in National Resource Strategy from the Industrial College of the Armed Forces. Mr. Siemer also served in the United States Navy. He is registered as a Professional Civil Engineer, a Certified Energy Manager and a Certified Educational Facilities Professional.
