The CVG Airport Authority Names Corrine Reynolds as Sr Program Manager, Terminal Modernization

CINCINNATI, OH – The CVG Airport Authority, which owns and operates the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport (CVG), has named Corrine Reynolds as Sr Program Manager, Terminal Modernization. In this position, Ms. Reynolds will be responsible for managing the planning, design, construction, and activation activities associated with Elevate CVG, a multi-year Terminal improvement program intended to boost operational efficiency, modernize facilities, and foster an intentional customer-centric experience. Ms. Reynolds began her new role on April 29, 2024.

Corrine Reynolds, PMP

Ms. Reynolds has worked for The CVG Airport Authority for 14 years, most recently serving as Sr Program Manager. In that role, she worked with key stakeholders to closely coordinate a variety of the Authority’s projects. Ms. Reynolds was responsible for budgeting, scope development, cost estimating, operational readiness and close out, including project budget reconciliation.

“I’m thrilled and honored to lead the Elevate CVG program and contribute to such a significant initiative at my hometown airport,” said Ms. Reynolds. “It’s a wonderful opportunity to create a positively memorable experience for our community and passengers.”

Ms. Reynolds received a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from Thomas More University and went on to earn her master’s degree in Organizations Leadership from Mount Saint Joseph University. She is also certified as a Project Management Professional.
