The Rocky Mountain Metropolitan Airport Appoints Erick Dahl as Airport Director

BROOMFIELD, CO – The Rocky Mountain Metropolitan Airport (RMMA) has appointed Erick Dahl as the new Airport Director. With more than two decades of experience in aviation management and operations, Mr. Dahl plans to lead RMMA with a strong focus on community and stakeholder engagement. Throughout his career, Mr. Dahl has held roles as an Aeronautical Analyst at the National Geospatial Intelligence Agency and Airport Director at St. Louis Downtown Airport. He has expertise in operations, planning and construction, information technology, and community engagement. Mr. Dahl will begin his new role on June 17, 2024.

Erick Dahl, C.M.

"It is my privilege to serve as Airport Director at Rocky Mountain Metropolitan Airport," Mr. Dahl stated. "I am eager to leverage my experience to enhance efficiency, strengthen community relationships, and ensure the airport continues to serve as a pivotal resource in the region."

Mr. Dahl has been recognized for leading multimillion-dollar airport development projects and integrating technology into airport operations. He has also led major initiatives to coordinate with community interests on aircraft noise abatement, runway/taxiway construction, wildlife determinants, and financial stability.

Mr. Dahl received a bachelor's degree in Airport Management from the University of North Dakota. He went on to earn his master's degree of Business Administration in Aviation from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. He is a licensed pilot and a Certified Member (C.M.) of the American Association of Airport Executives.
