VSE Aviation Names Mike Rezman as Vice President MRO

MIRAMAR, FL – VSE Aviation has named Mike Rezman as Vice President MRO. As a senior member of the leadership team, Mr. Rezman will be responsible for shaping strategies that drive market share, and enhance customer engagement. Headquartered in South Florida, VSE Aviation provides services and parts for Commercial, Cargo, Business/General Aviation, Military/Defense, and Rotorcraft customers globally. Mr. Rezman began his new role on July 15, 2024.

Mr. Rezman has a strong background in MRO services, as well as general management, business development, operations, sales, and engineering. Most recently, he was Managing Director for Kellstrom Aerospace where he focused on growing the distribution business via new product development and obtaining new OEM lines. He has also worked for StandardAero, holding the titles of Sector Vice President of Accessory MRO and Vice President of Business Development.

"I'm excited to join the executive team at VSE Aviation," said Mr. Rezman. "They have cultivated a positive team culture loaded with great people who care and achieve results. I look forward to leading their MRO group which is an excellent fit for my experience, skills, and who I am."

Mr. Rezman received a bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic University. He went on to receive a master of business administration in International Business from the University of Miami.
