ADK Completes Search for The Norfolk Airport Authority

NORFOLK, VA – ADK Consulting and Executive Search announced the successful placement of Frederick Forehand as Manager, Information Technology for the Norfolk Airport Authority. In this role, he will play a vital role in ensuring the reliability and security of the Norfolk International Airport’s technology infrastructure. Mr. Foreman began his new role on December 2, 2024.

Mr. Forehand has more than twenty years of experience working in enterprise IT and six years in an aviation IT capacity. Most recently, he served as Business Relationship Manager for CPS Energy where he partnered with business leaders to identify and develop IT solutions that solved departmental needs and aligned technology solutions. Previously, he worked for the City of San Antonio and San Antonio International Airport as IT Manager. In that role, he managed network cabling and network systems build-out for the city as well as aviation operations and planning with IT construction projects.

Mr. Forehand received a bachelor’s degree in network and communications management from DeVry University. He went on to receive a master’s degree in network and communications management from Keller University, a master’s degree in business administration / IT management from American Public University and a doctorate of business management in data network systems from Northcentral University.
