The Cheyenne Regional Airport Board Partners with ADK to Recruit Director of Aviation

ADK Consulting & Executive Search, a retained recruitment firm known for its expertise in senior executive searches in the aviation industry, partnered with The Cheyenne Regional Airport Board to recruit William “Doug” Bullock, A.A.E., as Director of Aviation. In this role, Mr. Bullock will be responsible for the oversight and administration of all facets of airport owned facilities, including day-to-day operations of Cheyenne Regional Airport (CYS).

Mr. Bullock brings more than twenty-eight years of experience in the aviation industry; he is extremely well-versed in establishing the strategic direction and driving high-performing teams with extensive knowledge of principles and practices of modern airport management. Most recently, he was the Airport Manager for Carbon County Airport where he led capital improvement projects and increased airport revenue year over year. Previously, he was the Airport Security Coordinator and Superintendent of Security and Safety for Mobile Regional Airport where he helped acquire new service and worked as a team member to help design the new terminal in Downtown Mobile.

Doug Bullock, A.A.E.

“I’m thrilled to begin the role of Director of Aviation at Cheyenne Regional Airport and to work with the Board of Directors, staff, stakeholders and the community,” said Mr. Bullock. “What excites me most about joining Cheyenne Regional Airport is the chance to work alongside a talented team and a community that truly values its airport. I’m looking forward to listening, learning, and building strong relationships so we can continue growing air service, air cargo, expand industrial development, support local businesses, and ensure the airport continues to grow as a vital asset for Southern Wyoming and the region.”

Mr. Bullock earned his bachelor’s degree in Aviation Business Administration from Embry Riddle Aeronautical University and went on to earn his master’s degree in Aviation Management from Utah State University. He is an Accredited Member (A.A.E.) of the American Association of Airport Executives. Mr. Bullock is also an Adjunct Faculty Member of Utah State University.
